Biliousness is a condition characterized by a disordered action of the digestive organs. The stomach is debilitated, the liver torpid, the bowels constipated. There is a pouring of food, pain in the bowels, distention, coated tongue and vomiting, first of the undigested or partly digested food and then of bile, causing nausea, stomach and liver troubles, and the disturbance of the stomach and creates a healthy appetite. They also tone up the liver to a healthy action and regulate the bowels. Try them and you are certain to be just pleased with the result. For sale by J. J. Wood & Son, Druggists.

To this union was born six children, four of whom are still living—Mr. T. K. Ricketts, Jr., Assistant Cashier of Mitchell, Finch & Co.'s Bank, and Misses Mary L. Anna P., and Lizzie C. Ricketts, all residing at home.

Mrs. Ricketts died in 1896, and two sons, John P. and William, died some years later.

It has been vouchsafed to Mr. Ricketts to witness the most wonderful developments that have marked the world's history.

He has seen the state of Kentucky grow from a population of about 400,000 to over 2,000,000; the United States has grown from 7,000,000 to 80,000,000 people; when he saw the light there was not a railroad in the world, and the telegraph and telephone did not exist even in the mind of an electrician.

He was here before the Kentucky troops that shared in the disastrous shock on the river Raisin and the subsequent brilliant victory of the Thames returned to Maysville and were mustered out of service.

He had almost arrived at "man's estate" when, on July 4th, 1829, ground was broken for the Maysville and Lexington Turnpike, the first macadamized road ever undertaken by individual enterprise in the world, and he is the only living witness to the attendant ceremonies.

Up to a few months ago he was as active as most men of 50, but for some weeks he has been confined to his home, although his mind is as clear and his memory of past events as ever.

His entire life has been spent in his county and city, and his present residence is on the same side of Sutton street and just one square from the spot where he began his apprenticeship in 1820—seventy-four years ago.

Does It Pay to Buy Cheap?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of a cold and cough.

Do you want a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible it is not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in every case.

"It not only relieves and stimulates the system to destroy the germ disease, but always in its action, causes your expectation, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. For sale by J. C. Peck."

The prosecution at Frankfort realizes that the "conviction" of YOUTSEY is necessary for the vindication of JAMES ANDREW SCOTT.

DON'T swallow all the "confessions" now being made at Frankfort. A corruption fund of $100,000 can procure any old sort of testimony. Just wait till you hear the other side of the story.

THE War Department at Washington has recognized General D. R. COLEMAN as Adjutant General of Kentucky by honoring his requisition for two hundred new uniforms for the soldiers on duty at Frankfort.

THE evidence that it is to "hang Taylor and damn the Republican party" is so far found only in the sensational headlines of the Goebel papers. The statements of the witnesses— even so able a witness as Mr. CLYTON—do not connect Governor TAYLOR in any way with the removal of Mr. GOEBEL.

EVEN the learned Sawbones have mended their holt. When GOEBEL was shot it was given out that the hole in his breast was much larger than the hole in his back. This was conclusive proof that the ball entered the back and came out through the breast.

But this did not fit the purposes of the prosecutors, so now the doctors are swearing that both holes were of the same size!

COLONEL JOHN R. ALLEN of Lexington has been "frozen out" of the race for nomination for Congress from the Seventh District. In the first place, the Committee disbarred from the primary every Democrat who was opposed to GOEBEL last fall, and this was disbarred to Colonel ALLEN; and then it levied a tax of $1,000 on each man who submitted his name to the primary; and this was the straw that broke the combination. The race is now between the illustrious SOUTH TRIMBLE and the Devil.

WHAT a magnificent sure-thing Governor BECKHAM would be, when as a "pretender" only he "pardons" murderers without reading the papers in the case!

About two years ago JAMES C. GRAYES shot and killed CHARLES CASSIDY, brother of R. J. CASSIDY, Inspector for the State Board of Pharmacy.

The killing followed shortly after a dispute over some live stock, the farms of CASSIDY and GRAYES, near Versailles, adjoining.

Mr. CASSIDY said, speaking of the pardon of his brother's murderer— "The evidence in the case, such as would have made it impossible for BECKHAM to have issued a pardon if he had taken the trouble to acquaint himself with the facts. At considerable trouble and expense I had a typewritten history of the case, including all the evidence, prepared. This I took to BECKHAM at Frankfort, asking him to read it before he passed upon the petition, signed by 1,000 persons, for GRAYES's pardon.

"BECKHAM never bothered himself about reading this book, but issued the pardon anyhow, and by so doing he showed that his methods are too lax for a man who wants to sit in the Governor's chair in Kentucky. He never paid the slightest attention to my requests to be heard in the matter, but pardoned the slayer of my brother because, as he said, there were 1,000 signers to the petition."

"Squire Grant gave Nat Green and George Smith, who are a few reapers, mowers, threshing machines, etc., as stated yesterday, $25 fine and 10 days in the 'Cooler.'"

The entertainment given by the Department of Physical Culture at Haywood this evening will commence promptly at 7:45. There will be a street car in waiting after the entertainment. Those who have not already secured their tickets can get them at the Drugstore of Mr. J. C. Peor and Mr. J. J. Wood or at the door this evening.

At the Grand Council of the United Commercial Travelers of Kentucky, West Virginia and Virginia at Lynchburg, Va., Friday and Saturday of last week, Mr. George F. Brown was re-elected Grand Secretary at an increase of salary, and Mr. J. B. Russell made a member of the Auditing Committee for two years. The next meeting of the Grand Council will be held the third Friday and Saturday of May, 1901, at Richmond, Va.

HOPES FOR TAYLOR.

Ex-Gov. Bradley Wires From Washington That the Supreme Court May Decide in His Favor.

Frankfort, Ky., May 8.—Predictions as to the action of the supreme court at Washington may not be worth much in advance of a decision by that tribunal, but at any rate the republican leaders here are very much lifted up by a private message sent here by Governor O. G. Bradley, chief counsel for Taylor at Washington.

The message is said to have conveyed the information that the best authorities on constitutional law at the national capital believe that the supreme court will decide either in favor of Taylor, or that the state held no election last year.

Murder Suspected. Owensboro, Ky., May 8.—Harry Logden, a veteran of Santiago, whose brother was cruelly murdered last year, was found on the railroad track Monday morning, and died a little later. Opinion is divided as to whether he was crushed by the train, his head being fearfully mangled, or whether he was struck by some weapon in the hands of an assailant.

City Tax Levy Invalid. Lexington, Ky., May 8.—If sustained by the court of appeals, a decision rendered by Judge Parker will invalidate the city tax levy for this year. After the city council fixed the tax rate at $1.25 in March the board of education fixed the tax 35 cents for school purposes would leave a deficit of $6,000, and by mandamus sought to compel the city to make a levy sufficient to realize $6,000. This motion Judge Parker sustained. The law requires that a tax levy can only be made in June.

Moved Out in Time. Louisville, Ky., May 8.—The Walnut Street Baptist church recently sold the floor building at Fourth and Walnut streets and moved out. The church is now being torn down to make way for business houses. Investigation shows that the timber of the floor building was very weak, and that it would have only been a question of time when the weight of the large congregation would have caused it to collapse.

Bishop Displeased. Owensboro, Ky., May 8.—The St. Hubert society will probably appeal to Mr. Martindale, the papal representative at Washington, from a decision of Bishop McLoskey against a meeting of the state league of German Catholic benevolent societies for May 27 and 28. The bishop forbids the use of churches or school houses. Having been disappointed with the meeting at Louisville last year.

No Further Use for the Soldiers. Frankfort, Ky., May 8.—The five prisoners, Powers, Youtsey, Davis, Whitaker and Combs, charged with being accessories to the Goebel murder, whose cases have been transferred to Georgetown for trial in July, will be taken there. The county officials will unite in a request to Beckham asking him to send his soldiers home as soon as the prisoners leave here.

Electric Line Surveyed. Lexington, Ky., May 8.—State college students have completed a survey for an electric railway to connect Lexington and Georgetown. The estimated cost of construction will be nearly $100,000, not including the cost of plant which would run the total up to $200,000. The distance is 12 miles.

Unopposed Letter in Her Hand. Scottsville, Ky., May 8.—Miss Emma Huntman, a young lady of 24, was buried here. In her hands rested an unopened letter, which reached its destination only a few hours too late. It was from an old sweetheart, whose bride she was to have become in a short time.

Struck by Lightning. Hopkinsville, Ky., May 8.—A house occupied by Mr. Harriet Garnett, at Empire, was struck by lightning and set on fire. Mr. Garnett was stunned, her clothes caught fire and she was seriously burned and will die. The house and contents were destroyed. Uninsured.

Jumped From a Window. Frankfort, Ky., May 8.—Mrs. James Ferguson, aged 80 years, leaped from an upstairs window of her home, striking on her head as she reached the pavement. Death was instantaneous, her neck being broken. She had been mentally unbalanced for some time.

Red Men's Great Council. Lexington, Ky., May 8.—The annual meeting of the great council of Improved Order of Red Men will be held in Lexington Tuesday and Wednesday. There will be representatives from all over the state in attendance at the meeting.

Dated for Four Hours. Owensboro, Ky., May 8.—Miss Rose Hayden was paralyzed for four hours from a stroke of lightning which shocked the entire family. She and her sister are both in a serious condition from the nervous shock.

Remedy of a Cough. A cough is not a disease but a symptom. Consumption and bronchitis, which are the most dangerous and fatal diseases, have for their first indication a persistent cough, and if properly treated as soon as this cough appears are easily cured. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has proven wonderfully successful, and gained its wide reputation and extensive sale by its success in curing the diseases which cause coughing. If it is not taken it will not cost you a cent. For sale by J. Jax, Wood & Son, Druggists.

Miss Lou Hushy, aged about 75, died Saturday at the home of her niece, Mrs. Addison Jarvis, on the North Fork, and was buried Sunday at Washington.

PLenty of IT. Lots More Proof Like This, and It Is All From Mayville People.

"The proof of the pudding is in the eating of it." If any city or town in the Union has sufficient proof on the following subject it is Mayville. Genuine merit is finding its reward in the hearty endorsement of local citizens. When people right here at home, friends and neighbors of our readers, give a statement like the following for publication it is proof convincing for the most skeptical.

WILL GOT LOVE

The Middle-of-the-Road Populists
Not in Favor of Fusion
With Any Party.

DELEGATES GATHERING AT CINCINNATI

One Woman Among Them Who Will Insist Upon a Woman's Rights
Plank in the Platform.

Ignatius Donnelly Talked of for President—Omaha Platform Will Probably Be Reaffirmed.

Cincinnati, May 8.—Two presidential candidates are talked of by the leading populists gathering in Cincinnati for the national convention of the "middle-of-the-roaders." They are Ignatius Donnelly, of Minnesota, and Wharton Barker, of Pennsylvania. Everything is in readiness for the fall of chairman Deaver's gauge which will call to order the convention of the "middle-of-the-road populists" at Robinson's Opera house on Wednesday afternoon. Only a few dozen delegates have so far put in an appearance, but their enthusiasm more than make up for their scantiness in numbers.

Prominent among the delegates who are grouped about the hotel corridors is Mrs. Luna E. Kelli, of Hartwell, Neb., mistress of a populist private publication. Mrs. Kelli is an enthusiastic advocate of woman's suffrage, and proposes exercising her fullest endeavors to have incorporated in the platform to be adopted here a plank enfranchising the entire sex. Ignatius Donnelly arrived early yesterday evening and went quietly to the Denison hotel, where he was soon surrounded by a group of admirers. Something of a sensation was sprung shortly afterward. It became known that a definite movement was on to place Mr. Donnelly before the convention as a presidential nominee. Instead of giving him second position on the ticket, headed by Wharton Barker, of Pennsylvania, Mr. Donnelly had only this to say:

"You know that I have never been accused of pushing myself. I am in favor of the greatest good for the greatest number of people. What ever the convention sees fit to do in the matter will be perfectly satisfactory to me. I believe that we should stick to our motto, 'Middle of the road.' These side issues were the prospects of many bright politicians. For instance, the silver question, without doubt is of vital interest to every person, but I have been cleverly side-tracked and Mr. Bryan has been shunted off into the issues of the late war with Spain. I believe this convention will reaffirm the Omaha declaration of principles, with perhaps a few added planks on the comparatively new questions."

Regarding the report that a great many delegates had been defeated by the Wharton Barker faction and nominate Mr. Donnelly for president the latter gentleman had little or nothing to say. On the fusion question, however, he was extremely emphatic, declaring that fusion was a thing that he hated beyond all others and he declared that there will be no fusion with the social labor party if he can do anything to prevent it.

PRIZE FIGHT ATTRACTION.

The Winner of the Jeffries-Corbett Contest May Fight at the Paris Exposition.

New York, May 8.—It is possible that the winner of the Jeffries-Corbett contest, which is to take place at Coney Island next Friday night, may meet some other American heavyweight in Paris before the exposition closes. S. C. Haller, representing the Hippodrome des Tivoli, of Paris, is here and has made an offer to the winner of the fight on Friday night to meet another prominent heavyweight next September in the bull ring at Paris.

After the battle has been decided next Friday Mr. Haller will make known the amount of the purse he is authorized to offer, but he says that it will be large enough to induce a favorable reply from the champion, whether he may be W. A. Brann, the favorite of Jeffries, and in case his man won he would take on Sharkey for the Parisian bout.

Made a Confession.

Philadelphia, May 8.—The Taylor was arrested, charged with passing the counterfeit $20 bill found in circulation last week. Taylor, when confronted with the evidence of his guilt, confessed his part in the conspiracy. He was given a hearing before United States Commissioner Edmunds and committed in default of $5,000 for trial. Taylor admitted having passed all the spurious notes of the Manning head denomination recently discovered in this city.

Price of Lead Reduced.

New York, May 8.—Surprise was expressed in the metal market at the action of the American Smelting and Refining Co., which reduced the price of lead from $4.70 to $4.40. This is the first change in price to be made during the year, and lack of demand and a desire on the part of the company to reduce the price of ore at the mines are advanced as the principal reasons.

MADE A HIT LAZE

Storage Warehouse of the Standard Oil Company at Constable Hook, N. J., Burned.

LOSS WILL REACH HALF A MILLION.

Dock and Pier Together With Several Vessels Were Entirely Destroyed By the Conflagration.

The Greater Portion of the Oil Burned Was in Cases and Barrels Ready for Shipping—Private Parties Lost $100,000.

New York, May 8.—Fire destroyed a large section of the docks and shore of the New Jersey Storage Co., connected with the Standard Oil Co.'s works at Constable Hook, N. J., causing a property loss of $500,000. It is some suspicion that the fire was started by strikers, who for the past week have been troublesome at the oil works and at the Oxford cooper works, which adjoin.

The oil tank ship Adelphi was burned, as were three oil barges which lay alongside the docks. Fire tugs from Brooklyn, New York, Jersey City and Staten Island responded to calls for assistance. The firemen on shore were repeatedly driven away from the fire by intense heat, and the tugs had to turn their own hose upon themselves to keep their sides and deck houses from burning. Piers 1 and 2 are totals losses.

Two pile drivers at pier 3 were destroyed, but the pier itself and pier 4 were saved. The ship Josephus, belonging to Arthur Sewall, of Maine, was destroyed, and had been loading with case oil for China ports.

The loss to the Standard Oil Co. will be in the neighborhood of $400,000 on buildings, docks, oil and machinery. The greater portion of the oil burned was in cases and barrels, and was ready for shipment. The aggregate loss to private individuals is estimated at $100,000.

Officials of the Standard Oil Co. are of the opinion that the fire started on one of the pile drivers. They say it would have been impossible for the strikers to start the fire, as they could not pass through the yards to the docks.

FIRE IN ATLANTA.

Big Factory and Forty Cottages Destroyed—Bourgeois Families Homeless.

Atlanta, Ga., May 8.—The factory of the Wire Furniture Co., one of the largest manufacturing plants of its kind in the south, located just outside the city limits, was burned. Forty cottages, occupied by people employed by the Omaha declaration, were destroyed, rendering many families homeless. Several hundred thousand feet of hardwood lumber was also burned.

Sam Dickinson, fireman, was badly burned, and Thos. Varner was carried from one of the burning cottages in an unconscious condition. The loss to the factory and on the cottages will be about $200,000, with insurance about half.

RUSSIA AND CHINA.

Friction Between the Two Governments Over Railroad Construction in Manchuria.

London, May 8.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times says: "The Russian government has serious friction between the Russians and the Chinese in Manchuria in the Russian railway construction route. In one case a detachment of 33 Chinese soldiers shot the Russian captain of the Cossacks who were doing police duty. The Cossacks attacked and pursued the Chinese, cutting them down."

"The Russian government has sent a complaint to Pekin, demanding the punishment of the Chinese officials of the district. China complied. There have been several murders and mutilations of Russian engineers by Chinese brigands."

The Hall Will Be Ready.

Kansas City, Mo., May 8.—For the second time since Convention hall was destroyed by fire on April 4 the committee on the national democratic committee met here and put its stamp of approval upon the hall and the general arrangements being made by Kansas City for the July 4th gathering. The committee viewed the reconstruction of the hall, and were surprised at the progress made. No doubt is in the minds of the building will be completed in time for the convention.

MOVING ONWARD.

The British Are Now Encamped on the North Bank of the Vaal River.

BOERS ARE EVERYWHERE RETIRING.

They Appear Determined Not to Make a Firm Stand Until the Kroonstad Hills Are Reached.

Since the Deadlock at Warrenton Has Been Broken the Relief of Mafeking Is a Matter of Only a Short Space of Time.

London, May 8.—The Boers have been driven out of Fourteen Streams, and the British are now encamped on the north bank of the Vaal River. The Boers are everywhere retiring before the British, except on the Natal frontier and at Mafeking, the inner circle of their defenses. They appear determined not to fight until the Kroonstad hills are reached.

Lord Roberts is expected to do another day or so more and then to wait for a time in order to bring up supplies and repair the railway. There are one or two hints in the dispatches from the front that he may rest for a few days at the end of the month. Gen. French's 10,000 cavalry have not been mentioned in the official or unofficial dispatches for four days. It is by no means likely that he is in the line, and the conjecture is that he is either detouring toward Kroonstad or raiding the Ladybrand district.

Two thousand British are now operating on the western frontier of the Free State. As the deadlock at Warrenton has been broken and the Boers are retreating, there is nothing formidable except distance between Warrenton and Mafeking. The most hopeful advice from Mafeking of April 22 was that the garrison would be able to hold out for a month. At that time the fever was spreading.

According to advices from Maseru, Basutoland, several thousand Free Stateers are north of Ladybrand where they have collected great herds. The district is rich in food for men and horses, and the Boers seem resolved to truck northward, but to be preparing to resist where they are. If they are let alone they will menace the line of communications after the main British army has passed into the Transvaal.

Lord Roberts and Lord Kitchener personally directed the action in the Net river engagement. Queen Victoria will send a signed photograph to Col. Kekewich, the hero of Kimberley.

Six thousand four hundred and fifty-eight troops are now at the way to South Africa. No others are under orders to go except as recruits to fill up the losses of regiments at the front.

Situation at Mafeking.

London, May 8.—Lady Sarah Wilson writes from Mafeking, under date of April 23, as follows: "The situation is unchanged. The garrison is depressed at there being no sign of relief, but is as determined as ever to surprise the Boers by a crowing triumph on the western border. A case of whiskey realized $540 at a raffle, and a pound of fow was sold at auction for two guineas."

Commandant Synman Alarmed.

London, May 8.—The Lorenzo Marques correspondent of the Times says: "Commandant Synman is alarmed at the prospect of having his retreat cut off that he has appealed for permission to retire northward from Mafeking to intercept Col. Plumer."

M. E. CONFERENCE WORK.

The Amusement Clause in the Book of Discipline Seems to Be an Important Subject.

Chicago, May 8.—Among the more important matters brought before the M. E. conference were the following: By H. T. Ames, of the Central Pennsylvania conference: A memorial modifying the amusement clause in the book of discipline. Referred to the committee on revisions.

By Rev. W. H. Cardwardine, of Chicago: A memorial signed by 42 members of his church advocating that the amusement clause be allowed to stand at present. Referred to the committee on the state of the church.

By Delegate D. E. Ackerman, of Alabama: A resolution directing the committee on episcopacy to report not later than May 12 whether any bishops should be elected at this conference, and if so, how many. This was adopted.

Shipping Gold to London.

New York, May 8.—It was estimated by foreign exchange experts that gold exports during the week were likely to be between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000. In other quarters the exports are regarded as extravagant figures. In all probability, however, one or more shipments of gold will be made to London.

Severe Preparing Defenses.

Stockholm, May 8.—Both houses of the riksdag, by a joint vote of 212 to 149, agreed upon the expenditure of 4,853,100 kroner for new defenses, of which amount $1,470,000 kroner will be expended during the coming year.

PEOPLES PARTY CONVENTION.

Delegates Gathering at Sioux Falls, S. D., Where a Presidential Ticket Will Be Nominated.

Sioux Falls, S. D., May 8.—A number of delegates to the people's party convention have already arrived, and arrangements for the gathering are about completed. It was at first intended to utilize the city's auditorium building for convention purposes, but the prospective attendance grew so rapidly that it was found necessary to secure larger quarters. Accordingly an enormous tent, under which 8,000 or 10,000 people can be seated was secured, and it is rapidly being put in shape for the reception of the large throng that is expected to occupy it. The speakers' platform is almost completed and a substantial floor is being laid. The meeting place promises to be very comfortable.

The streets are liberally decorated with bunting, and on every hand there are evidences of a purpose on the part of the people of the city to make the gathering a success and make the visitors feel that they are welcome.

The convention will be called to order Wednesday at 2 o'clock by National Chairman Butler. He will make a brief speech, after which prayer will be made by some local minister not yet selected. An address of welcome will be made by either Senator Pettigrew or Gov. Lee. A temporary chairman will then be named, and after the appointment of committees the convention will adjourn until Thursday.

For temporary chairman Gov. Rodgers, of Washington, was chosen, but he has not announced that he is unable to attend. This makes another selection necessary.

The principal talk has been about the policy to be pursued in the selection of a vice presidential candidate. By those already present there is manifested quite a noticeable friendship for Hon. Charles A. Tamm, the singly republican leader of Minnesota, but there are some who contend that the honor should go to a populist.

BUILDING COLLAPSED.

Seven Persons Buried in the Ruins, but None of Them Were Fatally Injured.

Kansas City, Mo., May 8.—A three-story brick building at 1302 Grand avenue, the business center, occupied on the ground floor by Jacob Goodman as a second-hand store and above by Mrs. Mary Sohn as a rooming house, collapsed, burying seven persons in the ruins. It is believed none of the injured will die. John W. Moore, aged 70 years, former mayor of Kansas City, was most seriously hurt.

The building, which was an ancient structure, had been condemned several months ago and had recently been weakened by workmen excavating for a new building on the adjoining lot. The building collapsed without warning, the walls bulging out until the roof crashing in before any of the inmates could escape.

SENTENCE STILL STANDS.

A Rafael Ortiz, a Porto Rican, Will Not Be Released From the Minnesota Penitentiary.

St. Paul, Minn., May 8.—Judge Leehren has filed in the United States circuit court his decision on the application of Rafael Ortiz, a Porto Rican, to be released from the Minnesota state prison. Ortiz was convicted by a military tribunal in Porto Rico for the murder of a United States soldier and condemned to die. The sentence was commuted to life imprisonment.

The application for release was based on a claim that the military authorities had no jurisdiction over Ortiz; that peace had been declared and that he should have had a civil trial. Judge Leehren refused the application in an oral decision Thursday last and has now filed an exhaustive opinion thereon.

Deaths of Soldiers.

Washington, May 8.—Gen. MacArthur has called the names of the following soldiers: John C. Howard, of pneumonia; Geo. C. O. Wincke and Burton O. Cottrell, of malarial fever; Henry Court, of dysentery; S. Wood of typhoid fever; Victor J. Seanech and Thos. Hill, of isolation; Thos. J. Welsh, of cholera; Thos. Osborn, of variola; James Jackson, of Bright's disease; James H. Tyson, of meningitis; Sergt. Wiley J. Brickey, of wounds; Geo. E. Rhodes, of perinephritis abscess; Geo. W. Howe and Geo. S. Sexton, of dysentery; Courtney Smith, of tuberculosis; Sergt. Alexander C. Blair, killed by unknown parties.

Extent of the Utah Mine Disaster.

Salt Lake, Utah, May 8.—W. G. Sharp, superintendent of the Pleasant Valley Coal Co., has made a report to the treasurer of the company in regard to the mine disaster at Scofield, in which he says: "Total killed, 109; bodies recovered to date, 105; injured, 7. Of those in the mine, 103 escaped alive and uninjured. There are 105 widows and 270 orphans."

Will Accept the Terms.

Baltimore, May 8.—It is more than probable that the Baltimore and Annapolis manager and catcher respectively of last year's Baltimore league team, and who have been released to St. Louis, will accept the terms offered by the management of that club.

WHERE'S THE PROOF?

CULTON'S "CONFESSION"

Not Likely to "Hang Taylor and Damn the Republican Party."

Louisville Evening Post.

CULTON ON THE WITNESS STAND.

The Evening Post published daily stenographic reports of the testimony of W. H. Culton. Culton is not making a confession; he has taken the stand to testify in his own behalf. The testimony is of interest as throwing light upon one of the mysteries of criminal history. It is there to speak for itself.

It is interesting, not only from what Culton says, but for what Culton positively refuses to testify to, even under the persuasive cross-examination of Mr. Campbell of Cincinnati and New York. The purpose of the cross-examination is manifest. Its failure is as manifest as its purpose.

The prosecution is seeking to "hang Taylor and damn the Republican party." In this effort they have the assistance of The Courier-Journal, which daily publishes its columns to this work with a shamelessness that surpasses anything in its previous history. In its headlines it declares that Culton confesses himself an accessory. On the contrary, when Mr. Culton is asked if he had any connection in any way with the shooting or killing of Mr. Goebel, he says, "I did not."

"Did you enter into any conspiracy, have any understanding or agreement with any of these parties named in the indictment, or with any other person?" "I did not."

"Did you counsel it or advise it or encourage it in any way?" "I did not."

"Did you know it was going to be done?" "There was not a man in Frankfort more shocked at the occurrence than I was; not a man more surprised."

The Courier-Journal's headlines say that his evidence "convicts Youtsey as a principal in the crime." Mr. Culton relates with great frankness various conversations he had with Mr. Youtsey, relating to facts that might form a clew that might connect Mr. Youtsey with the crime. These conversations are characterized by a light-headedness on the part of Mr. Youtsey, by a curious sense of irresponsibility that will constitute a strange phenomena in psychology. But it is stretching the significance of this testimony far beyond any possible legal lines to say that it convicts Youtsey.

Furthermore, The Courier-Journal says that Mr. Culton designates James Howard as the assassin.

Mr. Culton tells of meeting Howard in Frankfort after the assassination and expressing surprise at seeing him there. He relates a conversation with Howard which would indicate a knowledge on Howard's part of how the assassination was committed, but when Mr. Culton asked for further information, Howard said: "Do not ask any foolish questions." He does say that Mr. Culton asked Mr. Frank Clinton running away from Mr. Goebel after the shot was fired. This would indicate that Howard saw Goebel when he fell; it would indicate that he was not near enough to determine who it was with him or what Mr. Chin was doing.

The facts that Mr. Culton testifies to are important when substantiated, but when substantiated they do not bear out any of the deductions made by The Courier-Journal in its headlines or in its editorial reference thereto. There is nothing in this testimony that accuses Taylor of "being an accessory before and after the fact," as The Courier-Journal says. All that Mr. Culton states concerning Governor Taylor relates to the bringing of witnesses, armed and unarmed, to Frankfort. He states that prior to January 24th he conferred with Governor Taylor, and at his solicitation went to several mountain counties to serve subpoenas upon witnesses to appear in Frankfort, and that for this work, estimating that it would cost $5 to bring a witness to Frankfort, he received $125.

He testifies further that after the assassination Taylor expressed an opinion that Youtsey was a dangerous man to have any connection with. He adds that Taylor suggested it might be well to get Youtsey out of the state.

Today The Courier-Journal makes the following statement:

"Culton concluded his testimony this morning shortly after 10 o'clock, after having been on the stand for over five hours. He implicated Taylor further by telling of a conversation he had with him concerning Youtsey's presence in the state and the calling out of the militia on the day Goebel was killed."

As a matter of fact, the testimony of Culton yesterday was as far from implicating Governor Taylor as it was on the first day. Indeed, it constitutes quite positively the statement that Governor Taylor was laboring to get Youtsey out of the state.

Culton tells not of a conference between himself, Taylor and Youtsey, but of Governor Taylor's emphatic repudiation to Youtsey of the statement Youtsey had made that Taylor had promised him money if he would leave the state. To make this clear, read the following report of the testimony of Culton on May 3d:

"I will explain about that," said Culton. "Youtsey told me Taylor had asked him to leave. Afterward I told Taylor what Youtsey said, and Taylor denounced it as false. I declined to go with Taylor to see Youtsey about it, but afterward Taylor came into the Auditor's office and asked Youtsey about it in my presence. Youtsey then said Taylor had not asked him to leave the state. I said: 'Youtsey, you told me Taylor had asked you to leave the state.'"

"Youtsey said: 'I did; but it was not Taylor. It was some one else that asked me to leave.'"

"He did not tell me who that other man was."

In the questions propounded by Mr. Campbell in the cross-examination we have much light thrown upon the sensational publications made in The Enquirer and in The Courier-Journal prior to the meeting of the Grand Jury.

Mr. Campbell seeks to get Mr. Culton to testify that there was a plot to bring the mountaineers to Frankfort to kill a sufficient number of the legislators to give the Republicans control. This story was told at length time and again by The Enquirer and The Courier-Journal. It was to the effect "that a row was to be raised in the Senate; that when the row was raised the Republicans were to keep their seats and the Democrats, as they rose up, were to be shot down."

We have quoted this interrogatory from the stenographic report of Campbell's questions. It embodies the state-ments made heretofore in the organs of the conspiracy to assassinate character. Now we give the answer of Mr. Culton:

"That was not discussed in my presence."

Q.—"Nothing of that nature?" A.—"No, sir."

Q.—"Nothing of the kind?" A.—"No, sir; it was not. No, sir, I am positive of that."

Thus under the searchlight of truth does our falsehood after the other disappear. This is the atmosphere cleared. The desperate efforts now to connect the bringing of witnesses to Frankfort with the assassination, and the desperate attempt to connect the presence of witnesses with the conspiracy to assassinate half of the Democrats of the Senate seem to have no foundation in fact.

This is borne out by the formal declaration this morning in The Courier-Journal that "there will be no connection made heretofore in the organs of the conspiracy to assassinate character."

This comes after the bold assertion of Wednesday that Culton "convicts Youtsey;" that he accuses Taylor of being an accessory before the fact and after the fact, and the assertion today that Culton yesterday "still further implicates Taylor."

If these lies were truths, there would remain nothing for Culton to tell; that The Courier-Journal knows its own assertions to be false. The Courier-Journal confesses when it threatens Culton and then tries to persuade him with promises; when it insists that he "has not told" all; when it refuses him immunity "unless he tells more."

In other words, Culton, in order to secure immunity, must do what Youtsey, it is said, refused to do; tell a story which would "hang Taylor and damn the Republican party." As the witnesses refuse to do this, the degraded organs of the conspiracy to assassinate character, The Courier-Journal and Times, deliberately falsify their own reports put in the mouths of witnesses the words of the cross-examiner, and then declare that all their false stories and false confessions have been sustained, whereas every material assertion has been emphatically contradicted by Culton. It is a desperate game these organs of assassination of character are playing, and it will fail.

These efforts are born of a criminal imagination. They are directed throughout the state by criminal newspapers. They are seized upon by hearts burning with malice. They form a part of a deliberate plot to "hang Taylor and damn the Republican party." And they are an essential part of that plot. And yet they are absolutely without foundation. They are absolutely destroyed by the testimony which the enemies of society have asserted would sustain these contentions.

"It is with a good deal of pleasure and satisfaction that I recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Druggist A. W. Saville of Hartford, Conn. "A lady customer, seeing the remedy exposed for sale on my shelves, said: 'I really believe that medicine saved my life the past summer while at the shore,' and she became so enthusiastic over its merits that I at once made up my mind to recommend it to the future. Recently a gentleman came into my store so overcome with colic pains that he sank at once to the floor. I gave him a dose of this remedy, which helped him. I repeated the dose and in fifteen minutes he left my store smilingly informing me that he was 'well as ever.'"

"My wife suffered for many years from Nervous Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Sleeplessness and Nervous Debility," writes John Kelley, Philadelphia, who tried many physicians and numerous remedies, but with no results until I heard of John's Dyspepsia Cure. We bought six boxes, and the results far surpassed our expectations. The new cure and sleep, well, is gaining in flesh, and her color, which had got to be yellow and sickly, is as fresh as when we were first married, and I tell her that John's Dyspepsia Cure has made her ten years younger."
